

48

Admission Note

O 11/2/45 Bkg

This 48 yr. old wid. grt pt Camera shutter worker who's had history of poor dietary habits noted rather abrupt onset of ^{pitting} edema in left lower leg knee & foot

3 weeks ago, and " " " " right " " " .

The next day, these have remained swollen about the same amount & change during night, & were associated w/ puffiness of the eyes & face initially, but this has since disappeared, & return

She has had a non-specific papulo-vesicular-pustular rash for 8-9 wks. Has been weak & tired for the last week, stomachache for 2 days, no other cardiac or GI, no GU. 3x. She has had some possible hypothyroid 3x, received 1/2 iuhs. Thyroid Rx before admission 5 Oct. Some menstrual irregularity for last 3-4 periods. Wt. gain of 9 pounds. Has had possibly increased sun-tanning this year.

Exam: T 37²/P 90/R 20 BP 130/80. No vs distress.

Dry finely scaled skin; 2-3+ pitting edema below knees, 0 sacral; hyperactive K.J.'s; non-specific acneiform rash over trunk & thighs; increased pigmentation of orbital areas, areoles, no mucous membrane patches.

Impression desired.

CHEMICAL REPORT

D-1-1-1 FORM

Patient's Name

Specimen No. Blood

Unit Number

Division C-3 Date 11/3/45

Cholesterol Esters

TP 21 mg %

PPN 27 mg %

Specimen Taken

Kottinger/Bkg

Report by

Dr. [unclear]

11/3/45 | 2.9%

Dribs Circulation time: Macrod - left arm

0002274 to tongue: 1st time - 12 sec 2nd time - 14 sec.

Venous pressure: 57 mm.